Jackson Heights Neighborhood Transportation Study Monitoring Update

Commissioner Janette Sadik-Khan New York City Department of Transportation
Presented May 14th, 2012 to Community Board 3 Transportation Committee

Study Timeline

Community Outreach

- Summer 2009
  - Community Identification Workshop
  - Neighborhood-walkthroughs
- Spring 2010
  - Community Open House
  - Street Classification Workshops
- Summer 2010
  - Community Board 3 and 4 Transportation Committees
- Winter 2011
  - Short-Term Solutions Workshop
  - Launch of Transportation Portal
- Summer 2011
  - Community Board 3 and 4 Full Boards

- Community Advisory Committee and Technical Advisory Committee meetings

Findings

- Faster Bus Service
- Improved Safety
- Improved Travel Times

New Q47 Route

Jackson Heights

Q47 Bus Routing Options

- Q47 Existing Route
- Q47 Proposed Route [Feb 2011]
- Q47 Modified Proposal
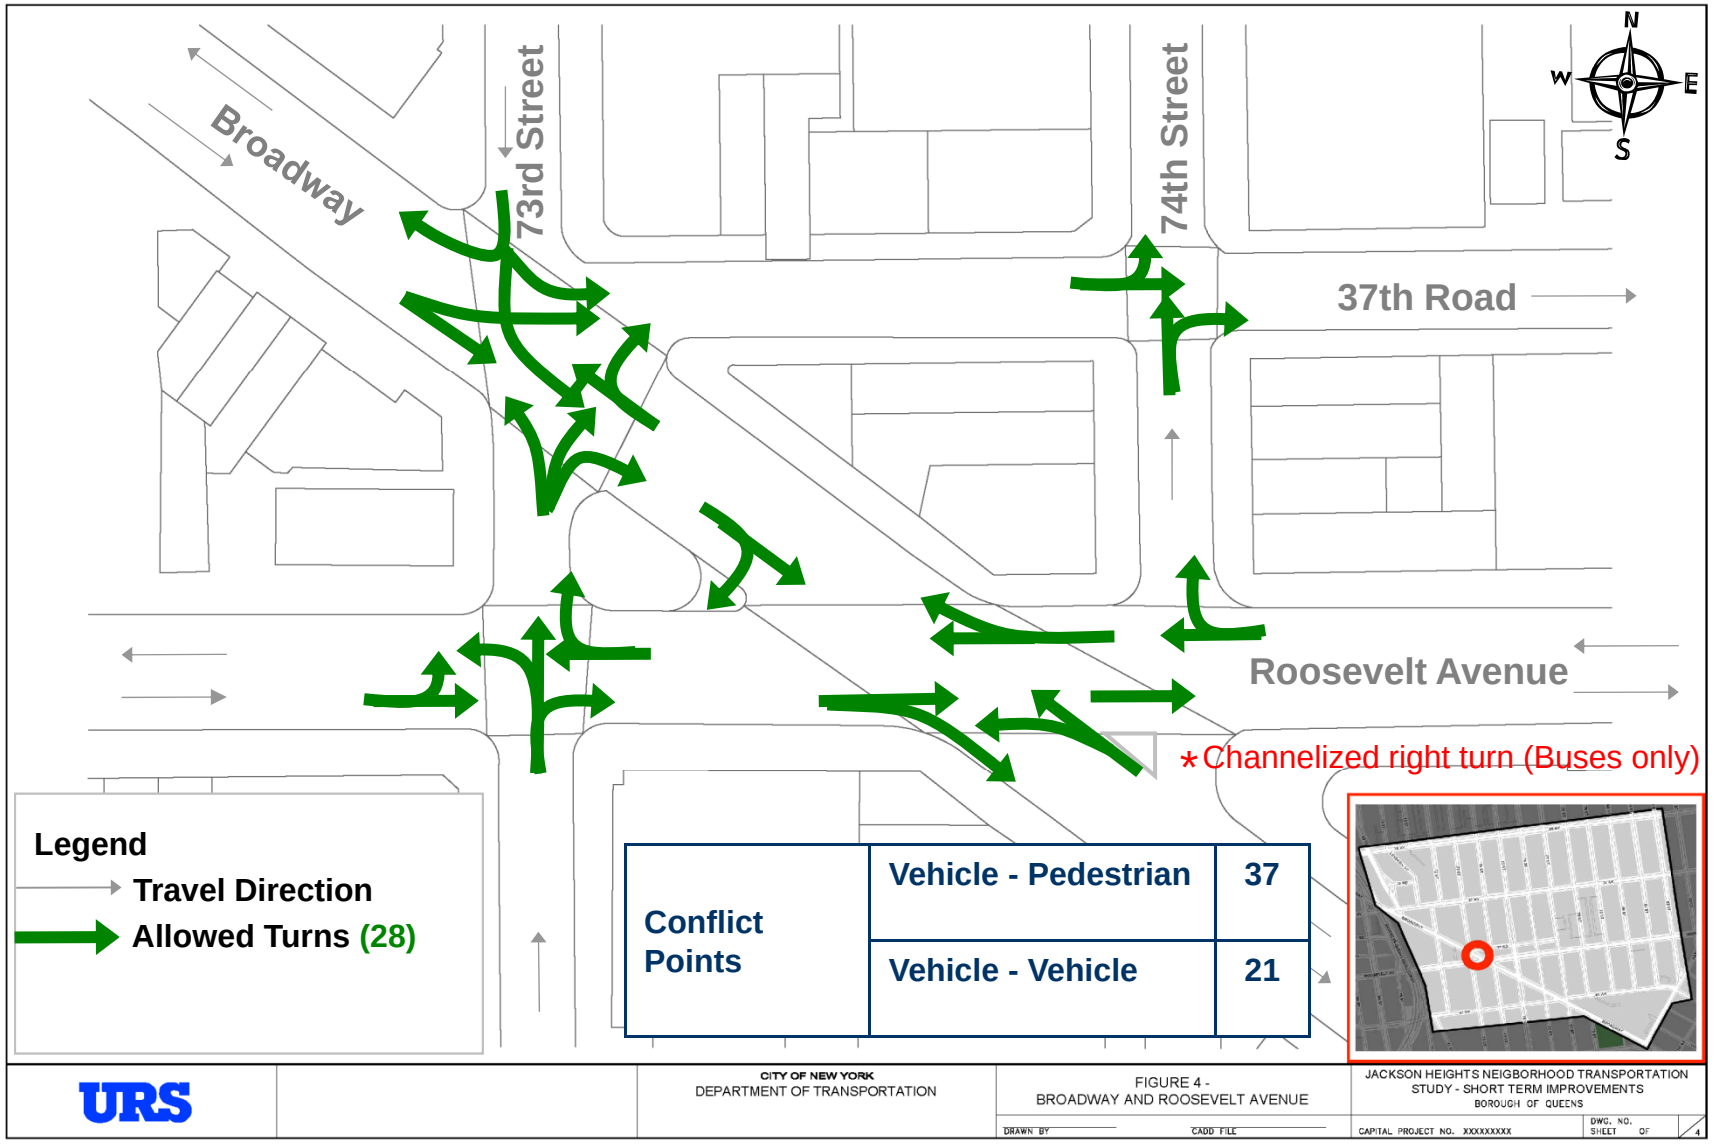
  Based on Community Feedback

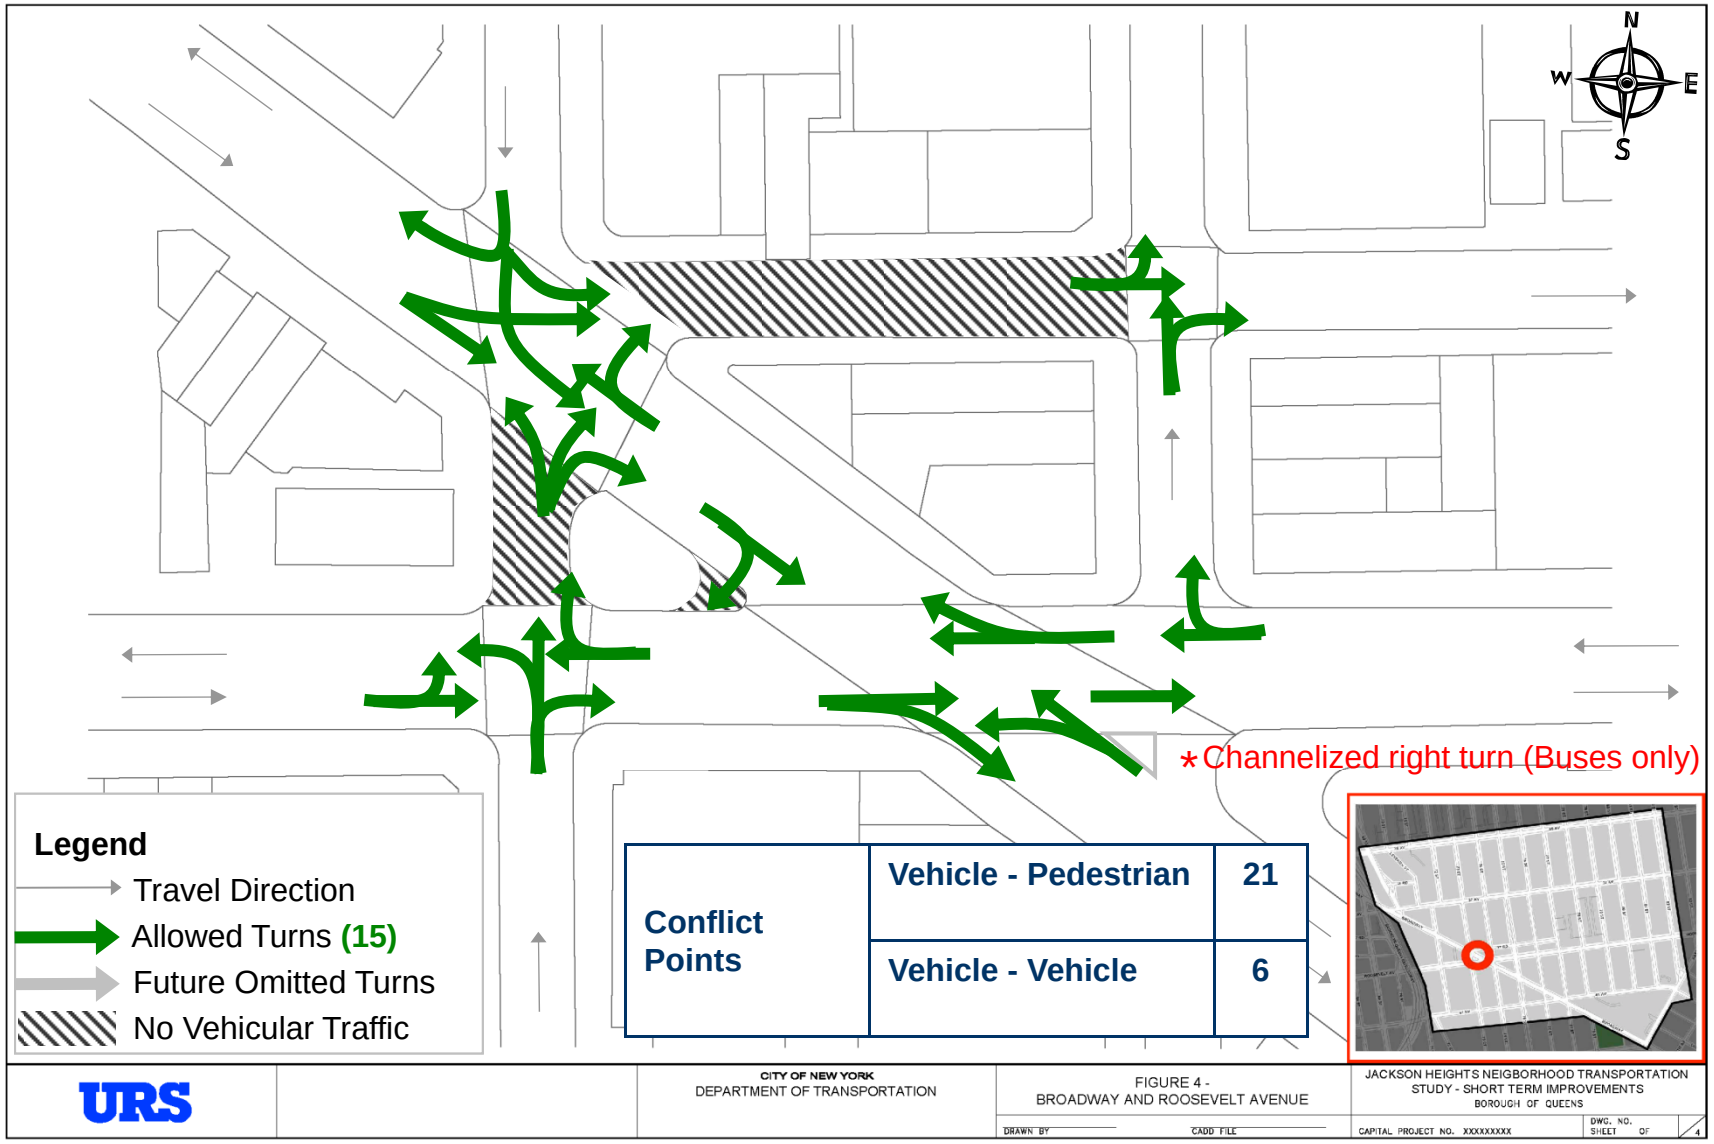
Faster Bus Service

- Southbound service improved
  - AM speeds increased by 25%
  - PM speeds increased by 13%
- Northbound service remained unchanged
  - AM speeds increased by 6%
  - PM speeds decreased by 5%

Improved Safety
Broadway at 73rd Street



Improved Safety
Broadway at 73rd Street



Improved Safety
Broadway at 73rd Street

Improved Safety
Roosevelt at 74th Street/75th Street

Improved Travel Times

- Broadway
  - Improved in both directions
- Roosevelt Avenue
  - Improved at key intersections
- 73rd Street
  - Improved between 35th Ave and 37th Ave
  - Unchanged between 37th Ave and Broadway
- 75th Street
  - Improved between 37th Ave and Roosevelt Ave
- 82nd Street
  - Improved between 37th Avenue/Roosevelt Ave and Roosevelt Ave/Baxter

Next Steps:

- Completion of full monitoring program
- Curb management strategy
  - PARK Smart
  - Commercial parking program

Questions?

Thank You