

Section 4

Street Classifications

Land Use

Land uses greatly influence the type of activities taking place along the street. The five main land use categories in Jackson Heights are:

Residential

80th Street

75th Street

Commercial

37th Avenue

Roosevelt Avenue

Residential/ Commercial

37th Avenue

37th Avenue & 81st Street

Public Facilities/ Institutional

Elmhurst Hospital - Broadway

U.S. Post Office - 37th Avenue

Public Facilities/ Institutional/ Residential

P.S. 69 - 37th Avenue

Community Methodist Church - 35th Ave

Street Type

Street Qualities

Cross Section

General

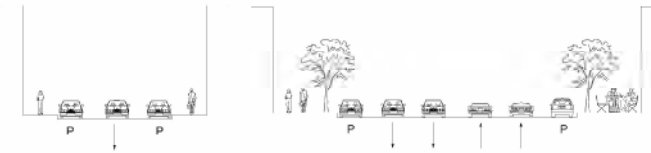

75th Street

Junction Boulevard

Most prevalent street design
Vehicles and pedestrians are spatially separated

Slow

46th Street - Queens

West 94th Street - Manhattan

Local street with significant traffic calming
Discourages vehicle through traffic

Transit

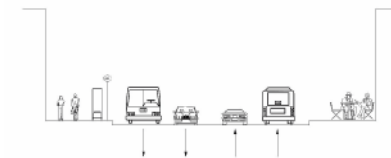

34th Street - Manhattan

Fulton Street Mall - Brooklyn

Private vehicles have limited or no access
Street may be exclusively for surface transit (bus)

Pedestrian Only

Stone Street - Manhattan

Metrotech - Brooklyn

Full day or part-day vehicle restrictions
Exclusively for pedestrians

Text courtesy of NYCDOT's "Streets Design Manual"

Street Classifications

37th Avenue - Existing Land Use

71st Street:
Residential

73rd Street:
Residential/Commercial

78th Street:
Commercial

82nd Street:
Commercial

37th Avenue Is Currently a General Street.
With Enhancements, It Could Become a ...

Section 5

Next Steps

Next Steps

- Street Classification
Small Group Meetings

April 2010

- Short-Term Improvements
Development

Spring 2010

- Community Open House Two

Summer 2010

